

SOCIETY

Miss Anne Brockebrough left last week for New York, where she will be the guest of Mrs. Charles S. Jones, at her home, "Knollwood," 105 West 10th St. Miss Brockebrough was among the Richmond guests at the Gibson-Taylor wedding, which took place last Saturday at Mount Kisco, N. Y. Miss Brockebrough also attended an interesting ball given by the American Yacht Club in the international yacht races, now going on near Oyster Bay, to their English opponents. She will return to Richmond in October.

Left for Lexington.
Misses Mattie and Louise Hammond and Isabel Luke, of Covington, Va., have returned to their home. Miss Hammond and Luke were the guests of Miss Nellie Meade last week, and several affairs were given for them. Miss Elizabeth Gwathmey gave a small swimming party last Friday at the Country Club of Virginia, followed by a luncheon. Miss Meade is leaving in October to be among the attendants in the wedding of Miss Louise Hammond, which will take place in Covington the early part of next month.

Miss Helen Walter is the guest of Miss Maria Williams. On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Satterthwaite, of the Chesterfield Apartments, gave an attractive tea for her at the Country Club. The guests included several members of the younger set. Miss Walker spent last week with Miss Mary Anderson at her home on West Race Street.

Approaching Marriage of Interest.
The approaching marriage of Miss Anna Payne, daughter of the late W. W. Payne and Laura Lee Moore, of Harrisonburg, to Captain Arthur Paulfrey Terry, of Wytheville, is of much interest in Virginia. Miss Payne is the granddaughter of General William H. and Mary Elizabeth Payne, of Warrenton, and great-granddaughter of Augustine Washington, half-brother of General George Washington. Captain Terry is also a son of a Confederate soldier, General Terry, of Wytheville. He was an officer in the World War, under Colonel E. G. Peyton, United States Infantry, and was recommended for an American decoration. Miss Payne has been a frequent visitor in Richmond as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Eppa Hunnicutt.

Entertained in Richmond.
Miss Florence and Irene McCrossin spent last week as guests of Mrs. Hugh Dabney at her home, 1825 Park Avenue. The Misses McCrossin were en route from Europe, where they spent the summer, for their home in Birmingham, Ala. Many delightful affairs were given in their honor. On Wednesday evening Mrs. Dabney entertained the girls at a bridge party. On Thursday, Mrs. W. W. Gill was hostess at an attractive luncheon at her home, 1101 Grove Avenue. On Friday, Mrs. Clifford Skelton gave a luncheon at the Country Club in their honor.

Visit to Ocean View.
Mrs. James Chick has just returned from a visit to Ocean View. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Robertson, and her small son, Had Cottage at Cape Cod.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Smith have returned from the North. Mrs. Smith has been with her sister, Miss Therese Nurney, of Suffolk, at a cottage at Cape Cod, Mass., for the summer months.

Returning From Wedding.
Miss Helen Walter is returning today from New York. She has been there for some time attending the wedding of relatives.

At Home in Ginter Park.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mack have returned to their home in Ginter Park. They spent several months in Europe this summer. Mrs. Mack was before her marriage Miss Lenore Tinsley.

Leaving for Stanton School.
Among the girls leaving tomorrow for Stanton Hall, in Staunton, are Misses Mildred Ferguson, Dorothy Grice, Frances Miller, Margaret Cannon, Clara Shackelford, Julia Allen and Catherine Watkins. Wedding Saturday Night.

The wedding of Miss Claire Hone to A. H. Bourney, Jr., took place Saturday night at the First Baptist Church, Rev. R. T. Wakefield officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hone, of Hanover County, and the groom is the son of A. H. Bourney, of this city.

Announcements Received.
Announcements have been received here of the marriage of Miss Ethel Ellington to Ralph B. Andrews. The ceremony was performed in Philadelphia, at the Twenty-second Street Methodist Church. The bride is the niece of John Burlingame, of 412 North Twenty-second Street.

To Visit Bethany Home.
The ladies of the Bethany Home Auxiliary will make their annual visit to the Bethany Home for Friendless Children, in Chesterfield County, on Wednesday afternoon, September 27. Members of the auxiliary or any one interested in the home wishing to make the trip should notify Mrs. C. F. Fussell, Randolph 200-J, as soon as possible. The automobiles will leave the home at 8 o'clock.

IN AND OUT OF TOWN.
Miss Annie Christian is in Rutherford, N. J., until the first of October.

Miss Cary Anderson left last night for Hollins College.

Misses Elizabeth Taylor and Lydia Purcell are leaving tonight for Sweet Briar College.

Mrs. E. C. Scrutton, of 2512 North Avenue, is visiting friends in Asheville, N. C.

Mrs. E. L. Phaup, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Blanche L. Phaup, is spending the month of September with friends in Roanoke.
